

06.06.15

Finance and Administration – Facilities and Operations

May, 2011

To promote the health and safety of University personnel. It is imperative that each of the employees in the Facilities and Operations Department has knowledge of safety and health guidelines in carrying out their daily work routines.

Facilities and Operations Safety Manual

Facilities and Operations is responsible for the review of this policy every five years (or whenever circumstances require).